

Title: Varieties of understanding in science
When: 24-25 January 2019
Where: Louis Hartlooper Complex, room Das Kabinett / Drift 21, room 1.05

Workshop programme:

Thursday 24 January (Location: Louis Hartlooper Complex, room "Das Kabinett")

09:30 Arrival with coffee and tea

09:45 Opening and short research project presentations by Jesse Mulder, Annemarie Kalis, and Emma Young

11:00 Discussion

11:15 Short break

11:30 John Dupre (Exeter): "Pregnancy as a Birfucating Process"

12:15 Discussion

12:45 Lunch break (lunch will be provided on the location)

14:15 Rebekka Gersbach (Leipzig): "The Temporality of Human Agency"

15:00 Discussion

15:30 Short break

16:00 Jeroen de Ridder (VU): "Limits of Scientific Understanding"

16:45 Discussion

17:15+ Finish

(18:00 Dinner with speakers)

Friday 25 January

09:30 Coffee

09:45 Olaf Dekkers (LUMC): "On (perfect) prediction in medicine"

10:30 Discussion

11:00 Short break

11:15 Ruud Abma (UU): "Varieties of (mis)understanding in psychology"

12:00 Discussion

12:30 Lunch break (lunch will be provided on the location)

14:00 ---> move to Drift 21, room 1.05

14:30 Sarah Durston (UMCU): TBA

15:15 Discussion

15:45 Short break

16:00 Alan Ralston (UMCU/Parnassia): "Pluralism in psychiatric practice: scientific and professional legitimacy"

16:45 Discussion

17:15 Drinks